York has established itself as one of the premier schools in the CUNYAC. Through 2017-18, the Cardinals have taken home 31 CUNYAC championships in their history. “What I’ve experienced at York, I can’t find anywhere else. York College has made me the man I am today.” - Former Men’s Basketball Player Chris Roberts
History
York was founded in 1966 and is one of 11 senior colleges in the City University of New York (CUNY).

Location
York's 50-acre campus is centrally located in Jamaica, Queens. The campus is conveniently located within walking distance of the subway, bus stop, and Long Island Rail Road.

Students
York enrolls 8,200 students who come from all parts of New York City. The student body is exceptionally diverse; about 50 percent of York students were born outside of the United States, with 125 different countries represented.

Faculty
York faculty members focus on classroom teaching as well as scholarship and research. More than 85 percent have a doctorate or the highest degree in their field. Student-faculty ratio is 16:1.

Academics
York offers nearly 50 programs of study leading to the bachelor’s degree, as well as a master’s in occupational therapy. All students receive a strong foundation in the liberal arts and specialized training in a major field of study.

Facilities
York’s academic facilities include a large microcomputer center open to all students; a campus-wide wireless computing environment; a state-of-the-art electronic music studio and computer graphics lab; a television production studio; and a modern, well-equipped library and one of the city’s best performing arts centers.

Cost
Tuition per semester for the 2017-18 school year is $3,265 and $285 per credit for New York state residents. The annual student activity fee is $208. Tuition and fees are subject to change.

Financial Aid
York students can take advantage of many state and federal assistance programs as well as numerous merit-based scholarships offered by CUNY and York College. Between 80 and 85 percent of York students receive need-based financial aid.

Graduate Debt Free
For three years in a row, York has been ranked #1 in the country in graduating students with the lowest debt, according to a study by The Institute for College Access & Success.
